

Remote Tools

Perform windows administration tasks remotely with the help of remote tools without initiating an unattended remote access session. Restart or shutdown computers and achieve other power options such as Log off, Lock, Hibernate and Standby with a single click using the integrated tools. As long as unattended access agent is installed at the remote end and the remote computer is online, remote tools such as power options work perfectly without the need for an unattended session.