

Session Analytics and Audit

Zoho Lens allows administrators to track activities carried out in their organization and provides them with metrics that aid them in making better decisions. You can keep track of all sessions in the organization with session analytics and session recording. Administrators can also access the action log viewer to help them monitor changes made in their organization account.

Click the links below to check out our various auditing and monitoring features:

- Session Recording
- File Manager
- Action Log Viewer
- Reports